'Miss Maccochaque' Marries 'Mr. Snow'

Members of this unusual wedding party participated in the "marriage" of "Mr. Snow" to "Miss Maccochaque." Their married name, however, is Rushton.

In an elaborately-prepared skit, members of the former Snow and Maccochaque Parent Teacher Assns. were united under the name of Frank Rushton P.T.A. Both former schools are combined as Frank Rushton school. The wedding took place at the last Founder's day program of the Snow and Maccochaque schools.

The "bride" is Mrs. D. H. Elvins; the "bride-groom" is Mrs. Fred Medlock, and the "minister" is Mrs. J. K. Orcutt, first Rushton P.T.A. president. Best friend at the right in front is Mrs. Neal Hervey and groomsman was Mrs. Del Murphy who substituted for Mrs. George Grauberger who was ill.

The flower girl is Sandra Swineheart, and Steven Culberson is ring bearer. From left in back are Mrs. Leroy Boyle, bridesmaid; Mrs. A. M. Roberts, matron of honor; Miss Hazel Meeks, "the bride's mother"; Miss Beth Chittenden, "the groom's mother," and Mrs. Alva Shipley as "Mr. Board of Education."

Mrs. Medlock was Snow P.T.A. president, and Mrs. Elvins headed the Maccochaque unit. Miss Meeks is Maccochaque principal, and Miss Chittenden who formerly was principal of the Snow school has the same position at Frank Rushton.

Other members of the wedding party except Mrs. Murphy, the flower girl and ring bearer are past presidents of either Snow or Maccochaque P.T.A.'s
